THEN AND NOW

shalt have no other gods before me." Whether sinner or Christian we know there is consolation in God; that he is our refuge. When flowers fade, the heart withers, and the whole world seems to prevail against us, there is always one to whom we can appeal and be given comfort.

Should we do all things that morality and Christianity imply, we as a race of people, would be far more respected. Here, in the dawn of this century, can we not turn and face the rising sun, as it comes bearing so many difficulties, and with renewed faith in God, with more sincere prayers, overcome the terrible temptations?

And now I leave you to the recording angel, who is the great historian of us, all, but I caution you that

"Our lives are albums written thro'

With good or ill, with false or true;

But as the blessed angel Turns the pages of our years, God grant that he may read the good

With smiles, but blot the ill with tears.

TAKING THE STUMP.

To tell about our lumber. It is put forward to win the approval of the lumber users of this section and when its good points are appreciated it will certainly do so.

We see no satisfaction or profit in handling low grade stock. Neither will consumers when they learn that the finest lumber does not piece by the foot but by the inches.
